

APPENDIX ONE

POINTS OF INTEREST TABLE

The following table of points of interest, Appendix One, has been attached and made part of this Management Plan. With nearly 100 points identified, this table is the direct result of data collection, research and brainstorming efforts throughout the development of this Management Plan.

It was decided, by the Nominating Committee, to not remove any identified points in this table. Although some points may not exist anymore, it is possible that in the unforeseeable future, such sites may be bear into a historic or even recreational role.

Therefore, it is anticipated and expected that the following Points of Interest table will grow as new knowledge and individuals bring forth their contributions to the Advisory Committee.
